

STRONG WIND WARNINGS IN MELBOURNE

The Bureau of Meteorology has issued a warning for damaging wind gusts in Melbourne today, which is expected to last until late afternoon.

The situation is being closely monitored so that terminals and MT depots can inform of any potential closures throughout the day.

Please be aware that these conditions can lead to potential delays or adjustments in the schedules.

TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS FOR AIR FREIGHT SHIPMENTS INTO AUSTRALIA

The Department of Home Affairs (DoHA) hosted a number of meetings addressing the introduction of new measures to import air cargo due to the emerging threat to aviation security. Qantas have since announced the following information on related changes:

The Australian Government has mandated temporary restrictions on all airlines operating to Australia, for certain items originating in 55 European countries, including at all tranship locations. These restrictions are effective immediately and will remain in place until further notice.

Restrictions

The following shipments must not be accepted for uplift on Qantas Group aircraft and are prohibited from entry into Australia:

- Cargo weighing more than 500g booked by an unknown shipper.
- Unless tendered by a Known Consignor, shipments that contain liquids, aerosols or gels and are packaged in the same consignment as battery-operated, electrical or electronic items, batteries, or analogue or electronic devices.
