HOT NEWS

•Shipping lines have begun avoiding the Red Sea due to hostile attacks against containerships and have announced surcharges to be applied on upcoming shipments due to the longer transit by Southern Africa.

•Please be reminded of the terminal infrastructure increases being applied around Australia from 1st January 2024. Rates will be increased by the terminals by as much as 54%.

• The Victorian Government has finally declared an Official Disruption Event in response to the ongoing industrial action at DP World which has caused huge delays to cargo and expense to importers and exporters. This declaration should assist in applying pressure to the parties to come to a quick resolution.
